2019 SHSMD Leadership Excellence Award Application

2019 SHSMD Leadership Excellence Award Application

The deadline date for submission is April 30, 2019.

The SHSMD Leadership Excellence Award honors outstanding achievement among healthcare marketers, planners, and public relations/communication practitioners — individuals who are truly exemplars of the strategy professions. Nominees must be SHSMD members in good standing and should have ten or more years of experience in planning, marketing or public relations/communications, including at least five years in a health care organization. Nominee's career achievements will be judged on four criteria:

Nominees' career achievements will be judged on the following criteria:

Innovation (20%)

Demonstrates creativity, diversity of thought and nimbleness to exceed the rate of change (identified in Bridging Worlds: The Future Role of the Healthcare Strategist) through innovative use of solid marketing, public relations and/or planning techniques including—but not limited to—new product development, product line management, sales, community relations, environmental analysis, strategic partnerships, competitor assessment, needs assessment, forecasting or network development

Enhancement of the Profession (30%)

Participation in professional organizations, publication in the professional literature, teaching or instructional experience, professional public speaking and/or enhancing credibility of the profession. Provide examples of how the nominee has shared knowledge and contributed to the development of healthcare strategy functions.

Career Achievements and Progression (25%)

Demonstrated significant career progression, documented results and work that is reflective of the implications identified in Bridging Worlds

Exceptional Leadership Abilities (20%)

Exemplifies SHSMD values: integrity, ability to work with diverse groups, motivating/mentoring others, exemplifying the values of our profession to people in other disciplines/other fields. Please provide examples of how the nominee has inspired or encouraged others to improve performance and/or instilled a sense of purpose in his or her teams.

Community Service (5%)

Demonstrated mentorship, volunteer experience and/or community involvement by the nominee at the local community, regional or state level. These activities should be independent of the professional organization or employer.

To nominate a colleague, please respond to the questions in this survey, and email a copy of the nominee's CV or resume to Ann Feeney at shsmd@aha.org. Your nomination must be received no later than 5:00 pm CST on April 30, 2019

Bridging Worlds: The Future Role of the Healthcare Strategist – Implications
• BE NIMBLE TO EXCEED THE RATE OF CHANGE: Healthcare strategists need to evolve as fast as the external environment. The must frame problems, ask provocative questions, and move the organization to action.
• TELL STORIES. CREATE EXPERIENCES: Understanding needs and motivations to compel storytelling and intentionally designing experiences is a critical part of influencing consumer behavior.
INTEGRATE AND CO-CREATE: The healthcare strategist must facilitate conversations within multi-layered and complex organizations, create coalitions, and seek out a diversity of inputs.
ERASE BOUNDARIES OF BUSINESS : Strategists must help develop accessible, integrated systems of care, assembled through reative means such as partnerships and technology.
GENERATE DATA-DRIVEN INSIGHT : Data is only valuable if it can deliver insights and better decisions, and strategists have a role in identifying the best tools to collect, interpret, and communicate information.
Note: In Bridging Worlds, the term "strategist" refers simultaneously to planning, marketing, communications, physician relations, and pusiness development professionals. Whether discovering ways to differentiate and focus, or shaping the future of an organization more globally, our working assumption is that the practice of strategy is universal, though the application of strategy is likely specific to each particular discipline.
