

5 ways to engage your team in Women's History Month

1. Tell us who inspires you: Share a story about a woman who champions equity, diversity, and inclusion. Submit your stories here.
2. Ignite your team's curiosity: Launch a Women's History Month learning challenge! Share thought-provoking articles, host discussions, and discover together.
3. Empower through service: Volunteer as a team with a nonprofit committed to supporting women.
4. Celebrate Women-Owned Businesses: Treat your team to delicious food or gifts from women-owned businesses, supporting their success while learning their stories.
5. Invest in your team's potential: Contribute to their professional development through a course, webinar, or conference.
